

Sinclair Broadcast Group is breaking the law by airing an anti-Kerry program days before the election. This is a violation of public interest laws. In return for receiving free use of public airwaves, Sinclair is supposed to remain impartial regarding elections and/or provide equal time to both sides. Sinclair's blatant attempt to promote Bush is illegal and should not be tolerated.

Sinclair is a perfect example of why we need more media regulation, not less.